

DAILY HERALD.

FRIDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 15.

To Advertisers.

The Business of the Daily Herald newspaper has been taken over by another paper in the State. It therefore waives all claims which it will not find elsewhere.

Amusements this Evening.

METROPOLITAN THEATER.—A grand theater for the stage.

MASONIC HALL.—Johnny E. Baker's World—enormous Minstrel Troupe.

STATE MUSEUM.—Winter's Block, East Washington Street. Open day and night.

LOCAL NEWS.

FULL.—The hospital at the Soldiers' Home is full of sick or wounded soldiers.

THURSDAY.—McLain & Brown, jewelers, Bates House Block, will please accept our thanks for a gold ring.

Don't fail to read the advertisement of Hume, Adams & Co., as it is of interest to everybody to do so.

A GOOD WAY TO DO.—As the final day of paying taxes draws near, the press for position at the desks of the collectors in the Treasurer's office increases.

AT THE AUDITORIUM'S OFFICE.—Seven thousand dollars worth of notes of the Exchange Bank at Greencastle were consigned to the Auditor's office yesterday.

AN OCCUPATION SUSPENDED.—This sudden cold snap embarrasses the builders; the work on many of our new edifices is stopped, and the bricklayers are hoping that Jack Frost will "fire and fall back," and that a warmer season will come.

MRS. HAIRE'S ENTERTAINMENT TO-NIGHT.—We invite attention to the notice of Mrs. Haire in our issue of to-day, and bespeak for her a good house. She is an intelligent and accomplished lady, long a resident, and well known to many of our citizens.

RECOGNITION.—William Gester, the soldier who was severely wounded in the affair at the Soldiers' Home on Wednesday, is recovering. His assailant has not been found. He left immediately for parts unknown, and did not think it best to wait for his pay.

NEW AGRICULTURAL JOURNAL.—The publishers of the Home Visitor will issue the first number of an agricultural monthly, to be called the Northeastern Farmer, on the first of January, and we assure our readers it will be worthy of a liberal support. Terms, $1 a year.

APPOINTMENTS.—William P. Eaton, of Baltimore, Maryland, was yesterday appointed by the Governor, Commissioner of Deeds for Indiana.

ALEXANDER HORN, of Wabash county, and J. A. Scott, of Shelby county, were appointed Notaries Public.

GENERAL.—THE shipment of goods to this city surpasses that of any previous year in our collection. The front of stores for the sale of gun-metals are decorated with venison, bear-quail, turkey, duck, rabbit, squirrel, prairie chicken, pigeons, etc.; presenting an inviting deliciousness to the palate of the epicure, as he momentarily stops to savor their richness in a sweeping look.

INDIANA FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY.—In another column will be found the name of the old and reliable Indiana Fire Insurance Company. Their office is at No. 10 Odd Fellows' Hall, Indianapolis, Indiana.

Christmas.—Bowen, Stewart & Co. are making extensive preparations for the coming holidays. Step in their store room, and notice the magnificent stock of books, etc., etc.

Skating at the Park to-day.

DON'T FORGET THE SALE OF WIGS.—house and lot, Friday, the 13th instant, at two o'clock.

COL. BLAKE'S WAR CLAIM AGENCY.—The place for returning officers to get their final affidavits, returns and pay accounts made out, and all other military business. Office opposite the theater.

FOR PRESENTS FOR THE HOLIDAYS.—To McLean & Brown's, No. 11 Bates House.

Skating at the Park to-day.

REOPENED.—City Bath House, No. 16 Pearl street, between Meridian and Illinois streets, nearly in the rear of the Palmer House. Hot and cold baths at all hours. Entrance through the Barber's shop.

BOOKS FOR THE BOYS.—The Gumbert Series. Morse Books. Armwell Books. Brightope Series. Salt Water Tales. Land and Sea Tales. Popgun Stories. Cedar Brook Stories. Roly's Books. Lucy and James Books. Martin and Neil Books. Little Books. Flower Series.

Skating at the Park to-day.

FOR THE HOLIDAYS.—Grand Pictures, Upjohn Pictures, Saxon Pictures, Cabinet Organs, Automatic Organs, School Organs and Melodeons, the best and the cheapest, at Indiana Piano Warehouses, No. 4 Bates House.

HATS, CAPS, AND FURS.—Under these three general heads are expressed the most complete, the most extensive, and undoubtedly the finest stock in the State, at Baker & McElveen's, No. 22, East Washington Street. These stores embrace a complete variety of China, Bohemian, Glass, Plated Ware, in addition to China Dishes Sets, China Plates, Vases, etc., and have been selected expressly for the holiday trade. They keep a splendid stock of Furniture. Lovers of the beautiful will be amply repaid by a visit to their rooms.

Skating at the Park to-day.

AT THE GOURMET can be had anything elegant or simple; in quality excellent, and served by obliging attendants. The table is supplied with every delicacy of the season, and the bar is not surpassed in the city. Therefore, go to the Gourmet.

THE HEADQUARTERS IN INDIANA FOR WATCHES AND JEWELRY.—solid coin silver and plated ware, gold and silver plates, cases, gold pens, etc., expressly for holiday presents at the Bates House corner.

KNABE PIANOS.—Bates House, No. 28 Pearl Street.

Skating at the Park to-day.
